MARTIN BAKER's Organ Recital in DURHAM CATHEDRAL

Friday 22 May, 7.30pm

programme features music by Bach, Widor's Symphonie V (complete) and improvisations

- ORGANISTS – tune-in to tuition from TOM BELL, MARTIN BAKER, ANITA DATTA and JAMES PARSONS
- build skills and performing-confidence in non-competitive and supportive classes – at Ushaw (St Cuthbert's and St Joseph's Chapels), in Durham's College Chapels and Churches, and at the consoles of several exciting instruments in Newcastle
- attend ORGAN RECITAL by passionate virtuoso TOM BELL at St Oswald's, Durham on Bank Holiday Monday 25 May, 1.30pm – featuring the newly-restored organ (made 1988 by Peter Collins, re-fettled 2019 by Nicholson & Co)
 - welcome to Durham Cathedral loft with Daniel Cook (98-stop masterpiece organ by Harrison & Harrison)
 - enjoy ANITA DATTA's Organ Recital at Ushaw (St Cuthbert's Chapel – Saturday 23 May at 2pm)
 - play in Participants' Concert at Ushaw
 - socialise over Dinner in the Parlour at Ushaw – a warmly-inviting Victorian space
 - discover Durham, and Ushaw's art treasures; enjoy leisure on the Ushaw estate, and stroll through delightful parkland-in-bloom
 - Friday 22 May (from 10.30am): guided 'organ crawl' to notable organs in nearby Newcastle-upon-Tyne and to Hexham Abbey
